

Today we received two 'phone calls. The first asking if we had a Sky system installed, & the second call asking if we wanted to renew our Sky equipment insurance at a cost of £55.

As we did not take out insurance on Sky equipment last year & as Sky should already know that we have the Sky system, this must be a SCAM.

Could you please warn the Members to be on their guard.